

Waiver and Photography Release

In exchange for the opportunity for me and my family members to participate in the Riverdale Y programs, I hereby irrevocably waive and release the Y against present and future claims and authorize the Y and its agents to photograph or interview me or my family members and to use such photographs and interviews without compensation. As consideration for participating in the Manhattan College Basketball Clinic on December 15, 2019, I, on behalf of myself, my family members, heirs and assigns hereby voluntarily, unconditionally and irrevocably waive, release and forever discharge and hold the Y, Manhattan College, and their agents harmless from present and future claims I or my family members may have against them in connection with my, and my child/ren's participation in this clinic (collectively, the "waiver"). The foregoing waiver includes, without limitation, any injury or death resulting from the negligence, faults, actions or omissions of another user, Y staff member, or Manhattan College volunteer, except for gross negligence and willful misconduct. I agree that I and my family members will exercise reasonable care and judgment in my family's participation in this clinic and will notify the Y in writing of any medical fact or condition that may reasonably increase the risk of injury to myself, my child/ren or others. I understand and I am aware that certain activities I or my family members engage in at the Y may pose risk of injury to myself, and I expressly assume and accept all risks of injury or death. On behalf of myself, my spouse (if any) and my children, I give the staff of the Y the authority to obtain necessary emergency medical treatment in connection with any medical emergency any of us may experience while participating in this clinic. I irrevocably authorize the Y, Manhattan College and their affiliates, licensees, assignees and successors to photograph or interview me or any of my family members and to use such photographs or interviews, as well as my name or the names of my family members, in any of its promotional materials. In addition, I voluntarily waive any right, cause of action or demand of any kind whatsoever resulting from the Y's or Manhattan College's photograph or interview of my family members. I also understand that the Y and Manhattan College will not give me, my spouse or my children any compensation for using such photographs or interviews and I waive any rights to any compensation now or in the future.
