

THE RESCUERS

LAST CHANCE PROJECT

Michael W. King, director of the award-winning documentary The Rescuers, www.therescuersdoc.com is expanding his research efforts with support from the Andrew J. and Joyce D. Mandell Family Foundation and USC Shoah Foundation to find survivors and relatives of additional diplomats who were named Righteous Among the Nations. Irena Steinfeldt, former Director of Yad Vashem's Righteous Among the Nations department as joined the team as Historical Adviser and Narrator. These new stories will be added to the Joyce D. Mandell Rescuers Collection.

“This is our last chance to document first-hand accounts related to diplomats who were at the center of the 20th century’s most unforgettable events,” King said. A list of the diplomats the team is looking to profile is below.

In what King calls “a race against time,” a team of researchers is currently working to identify people who either knew the fifty diplomats and/or Holocaust survivors who benefited from their assistance. Those with pertinent information are encouraged to visit www.rescuersdoc.com, reach out to us at general@rescuersdoc.com or message us through Facebook.
